Davey Photograph Co. Open for Business Today.

The doors of the Davey Photographic Company will be thrown open to the public this morning. Frank Davey, the President of the company, is one of the best-known photographers on the Pacific Coast, having been chief operator for Tabor for the past 10 years. Before that he was with Wallery of Paris and Vander-Weyde of London.

Besides being a photographer, Mr. Davey is a cartoonist of note in London, and his scrap-book contains many interesting newspaper reproductions of his pencil work. In selecting the Mott-Smith building for his new base of operations Mr. Davey secured one of the best in the city for light effects. The rooms were arranged according to his directions, and the detail is perfect.

FRANK DAVEY,
President Davey Photograph Co.

The reception room is on the first floor, near Fort street. Here a clerk will take the orders and arrange for the sittings of the customers. This room contains some sample portraits by Mr. Davey and albums of Island views.

Admission to the operating rooms is by stair or electric elevator to the third floor. Like the reception room, the hall and rooms are exquisitely furnished and carpeted and the walls hung with paintings by some of America's celebrated artists. One room, fitted with stationary wash-stand, dressing case, etc., is provided for ladies, and a smaller one for gentlemen. A wardrobe contains various costumes for ladies and children, who desire something out of the usual order, and who do not wish to go to the expense of having clothing made for the purpose. Among the cameras in the establishment is one for making life-size photographs direct. Besides the ordinary relief, mezzotint and bromide effects, which are superior to any others made. These are exclusive with Mr. Davey, and are made in San Francisco only by Tabor.

During his experience as a photographer he has made pictures of Lady Randolph Churchill, Stanley, Sir Edwin Arnold, Sir George Trevelyan, Whitelaw Reid, Prince Joseph of Battenberg, Cornelius Vanderbilt, Chauncey Depew, Gen. Lew Wallace, Thomas Nast, Bill Nye, Rajah of Rampur, W. Q. Judge and hundreds of others. He has copies of each in an album in the gallery with the autograph of the sitter on each. Mr. Davey has made photographs of a number of local people and in each case the likeness is excellent.

McVEIGH IN AGAIN.

Board of Health Reinstates an Efficient Employee.

The friends of J. D. McVeigh, and there are a great many of them, are rejoicing over the fact that, on Saturday last Health Agent Reynolds gave it out that the best Superintendent the Quarantine Station ever saw had been reinstated, and that he would return to his position on September 1st. Mr. McVeigh has been out of a position for several weeks, or ever since a quantity of opium was captured in the baggage of a certain Chinese immigrant by police authorities. At the time, it was claimed that McVeigh had had a hand in the smuggling of opium in to the country. McVeigh was suspended from duty, and for a while it looked as if another man might be appointed in his place.

At a recent meeting of the Board of Health, the medical members of that body stuck up for Mr. McVeigh. They did not believe him guilty. McVeigh himself had stated that the searching of the baggage of the immigrants was not in his, but in the hands of the Custom House authorities. His duties were to see to the fumigation of baggage and attend to various matters in connection with the station.

Nothing could be found against Mr. McVeigh, and so he has been reinstated.

Police Court Notes.

In the Police Court Saturday morning three of the Chinamen captured recently by Chillingworth and Vida and charged with unlawful possession of opium, plead guilty and had sentence suspended. The cases of the remaining six of the gang were nolle pross'd.

Kiili, the kahuna, had his case postponed until the 31st.

Ah Look and Ah Kwai, the two Chinamen who assaulted Ah On, the Chinese informer, were fined $1 and costs each.

Chin Wo, the Chinese laundryman, charged with unlawful possession of opium, was reprimanded and his case nolle pross'd.

Kauhane was fined $2 and costs for drunkenness.

William Shields, of Woonsocket, R. I.

Rode down the steps of the west front of the Capitol, March 31st; he was photographed during his descent, and the product of the camera is on exhibition to convince the skeptics. It is much more difficult to ride down the terrace steps of the west front of the Capitol than those of the east, for the steps are broken by several landings. It is believed this feat was never attempted before, although several riders have ridden down the east steps. On the west there are four flights of steps mounting the terrace. There are seventy-four steps and three landings.

Shields waited until the steps were entirely clear, and then placing his bicycle at the brink of the steep incline, swung into the saddle and began the descent. It lasted only fifteen seconds. Gathering momentum with every foot of the downward passage, the rider seemed to be going as if shot out of a cannon. When he reached the last landing the velocity of his descent had become such that he literally leaped over the final flight of sixteen steps to the bottom. He left the saddle, but at the bottom, wheel and rider fell in a heap--the latter escaped, however, without a serious bruise. The STERLING wheel, which he was riding, DID NOT LOOSEN A BOLT, OR WEAKEN AT ANY POINT under the severe strain to which it was put, and aside from a twisted handle bar, received at the bottom, came out of the ordeal without a scratch.--Washington Star.
